RODE WITH SHERIDAN. Monroe Graham, Dispatch-Bearer in Civil War, Follows Commander, CHESTER, PA., September 1 .-

Mr. Graham frequently gave at Grand Army gatherings a version of the part he played when he acted in the capacity of dispatch-bearer. The troops, he said, were stationed twenty miles from Winchester, at which place Sheridan was in conference with other army officers as to future plans. An attack occurred, and Sheridan was needed at the front. Graham voluntered to ride to Sheridan, and return with him while the battle was in progress. Graham started on his ride to notify Sheridan, and before he reached him the cannonading could be heard.

JUDGE SCOTT'S REVIEW OF HECHLER'S RECORD WHEN HE REMOVED HIM FROM OFFICE

Commonwealth of Virginia

H. C. Hechler, Treasurer of the County of Hearico.

of Henrico.

On a rule to show cause why he should not he removed from said office for malfeasance therein.

The rule issued in this proceeding, directed to H. C. Hechler, treasurer of Henrico county, to appear before this court to show cause why he should not be removed from office for malfeasance in this, "that he did on the first day of October, 1906, use the sum of $3,573,86 of the funds of the county of Henrico for purposes other than such as may be provided by law."

This rale was made returnable on the 17th day of January, 1907.

On that day he appeared in person and by counsel and filed his answer, shad thereupon the Commonwealth introduced certain witnesses and documentary evidence to prove the charge, and the respondent introduced witnesses in his behalf.

The case was heard by the court, as provided by law; the respondent being the court's appointee,

The defense made by the respondent is that he ind used the money out of a common fund kept in his name as treasurer of said county, in which he kept the funds of said county and a fund of $4,057,52, which he had colected from tax tickets turned over to him by the personal representative of his predecessor in office, W. J. Todd, deceased, and that this sum of $4,057,52, belonged to the centre of said w. J. Todd, deceased, and that this sum of $4,057,52 belonged to the funds of the county.

The evidence clearly shows that the fund, and not to the tentral county.

The evidence clearly shows that the shoringe on October 1, 1986, instead of being $3,573,86, was larger, to-wit, the sum of $4,176,86 (Rt. p. 43). During the month of October the respondent made good $8,323,70 of this shortnes, leaving a balance due by him November 1st, $883.16.
On November 1, 1906, respondent filed a petition in the suit of Todd vs. Todd, pending in this court secting forth abe fact that he had collected on account of tax tickets for 1905, turned over to him by his predecessor's administrator, the sum of 80,057.52, and that the estate of W. J. Todd, deceased, was entitled to a credit for this amount, while the money which was then in his hands belonged to the county, to be dishursed according to law. Thereupon a decree was entered in said cause on November 1, 1906, in part as follows:

"The court, now proceeding to dispose of the said amount, to-wit-80,-857.52—in the hands of the said H. C. Hechler, as freeze that the said H. C. Hechler, as treasurer of Henrico county, do place to the credit of Walter J. Todd the said such that he said in the said in the said in favor of the estate of the said Walter J. Todd the saids he has in his possession, which he saids has been as the said Todd to the credit of the said Walter J. Todd annuant shall be a credit in favor of the estate of the said Walter J. Todd angainst the amounts ascertained to be dignly the said Todd to the county of Hearles and the school districts thereof, the said amounts to be distributed under supervisors and the school board of Hearles and the school board of the board of supervisors and the school board of Hearles county."

This deeves sets forth that all of the sam of $80,087.52, collected an account of the Todd tax tickets, was on November 1, 1906. In the board of season of the board of season of the board of the supervisors and the school board of the supervisors and the school board of the board of the supervisors and the school board of the board of the supervisors and the school board of the supervisors and the school board of the board of the and that he did not use this money with any intention of wrongdoing, but simply to save interest or discount on these notes (R., p. 8). And, also, when called before the board of supervisors of the county to explain this shortage, his only defense was that he had used the money for his private purposes to avoid paying discount, and did not think it was wrong, as he had a credit of $3,000 in the State Bank of Virginia, and could have replaced the money at any time (R., page 49). This action on the part of respondent is a clear violation of the express provisions of our statute, as set forth in sections 884, 866, 371. V. C., 1887, and was mainfunsince in office, and the court is required by law to perform the painty duty of removing said respondent from office.

every doubt to his favor. I have done this, and would that I could see my way clear to doubt.

Respondent has acted in the manner he has with his eyes open. When he was appointed treasurer by this court it was not then known that Todd was short in his accounts. This court, he assuch as respondent was its appointee, and was a denuty in the office of Todd, as soon as the shortage of Todd was known, called it to the attention of the grand jury and had a thorough examination into the affairs of the treasurer's old them that they must investigate to do the said jury tod them that they must investigate could not be reached, and that the use of public funds by a treasurer for his private purposes was maltensance in office (as previded by section $21).
